

AN IPSEN SPONSORED SYMPOSIUM

CARE OF PATIENTS WITH NETS TODAY AND TOMORROW: THE IMPORTANCE OF LISTENING TO THE PATIENTS' VOICE

WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

Wouter de Herder (Chairperson), Professor of Endocrine Oncology, Erasmus MC, Rotterdam, The Netherlands

PATIENT'S PERSPECTIVE: WHAT HAVE WE LEARNED SO FAR FROM KEEPING PATIENTS AT THE CENTER OF CARE AND RESEARCH

Teodora Kolarova, Executive Director of the International Neuroendocrine Cancer Alliance (INCA)

DID THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC RESHAPE OUR APPROACH TO PATIENT CARE?

Jorge Hernando, Medical Oncologist, Vall d'Hebron University Hospital and Vall d'Hebron Institute of Oncology, Barcelona, Spain

PAUSE AND REFLECT: EXPERT PERSPECTIVE ON PATIENT CARE POST COVID-19

All

FUTURE FOCUS: WHY IS IT IMPORTANT TO KEEP LISTENING AND LEARNING FROM OUR PATIENTS

Thomas Walter, Professor of Gastro-enterology and Oncology, Edouard Herriot University Hospital, Lyon, France

PANEL DISCUSSION & CLOSING REMARKS

Wouter de Herder, Professor of Endocrine Oncology, Erasmus MC, Rotterdam, The Netherlands & All

Q&A

All

THURSDAY 10TH MARCH 2022

12.30 – 14.00 CET

ROOM 113 – 116